CCUNTRY Germany (Soviet Zone) TOPIC Parchim Airfield EVALUATION DATE OF CONTEN DATE OBTAINED REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (if S4/T 74) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks		San	itized Copy Approved for Release 2011/03/22 : CIA-RDP82-00457R006800770005-5 CONFIDENTIAL
TOPICFarchim_airfield			CLASSIFICATION SECRET/COMPROLAIS OFFICIALS
EVALUATION_ DATE OF CONTEN SOX1-HUM 1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runnay of the Parchim (N 5M/T N) sirfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds, Trucks 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim—Damm road,  Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of alreafy at the perchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Min-15s, is believed to be stationed there. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 Colober 1935 from the Director of Central inchigence to the Archivist of the United States. Document The radio installation is probably a landing boacon.	COUNTRY_	ستو	any (Soviet Zone) REPORT	5074 111114
DATE OF CONTENDATE OF CONTENDATE OF CONTENDATION OF STATE	TOPIC Par	chim	Airfield	50X1-HUM
DATE OF CONTEND DATE OF CONTEND DATE PREPARED 11 Jamuary 1963 50X1-HUM 1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (II SA/T TA) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters boyond the Parchim-Damm road.  Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of alreraft at the Parchim airfield has changed, One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing boacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the Michael State of Control Intelligence to the Uniced State of the Uniced	EVALUATION	. T		And the state of t
DATE PREPARED 11 Jamery 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 50X1-HUM 1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (11 51/17 71) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950, * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 50X1-HU 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters boyond the Parchim-Damm road.  Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the verchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. Document of Control Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	•
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. Five jet fighters with swept-back rings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (II 5L/T 7L) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950, * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters boyond the Parchim-Demm road.  Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the rarchim airfield has changed, One fighter regiment, equipped with Min-15s, is believed to be stationed thore. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. Document is hereby regraded to the Convention of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (N. Sh/T 7h) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 500 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. * Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. Document. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon.				50X1-HUM
1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (I 5L/T 7L) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were soon at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road.  Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the "archim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Alth: His Johnson Landing Document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (M 54/T 74) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds, Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. * Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacen. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacen. Decument is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (1 51/1 71) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters boyond the Parchim-Damm road.  Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	Remarks_			A CONTRACTOR OF THE STATE OF TH
1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (N 50/7 7h) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. * Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	g digestions, gifter delayellers (posses/degreens/dessed)	P 17-1-17-17-17-17-17-17-17-17-17-17-17-17
1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (N 50/7 7h) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. * Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.				TO I CANEL THE TOTAL TOTAL PROPERTY OF THE POST OF THE
1. Five jet fighters with swept-back wings were parked on the runway of the Parchim (N 50/7 7h) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. * Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.	ns. Signated Strate of the Control o
of the Parchim (M 54/T 74) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks were seen at the field. 2. A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. * Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Min-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Document is not probably a landing beacon.				50X1-HUN
Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of aircraft at the perchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.		1.	of the Parchim (M 54/T 74) airfield at noon on 29 November 1950. * There was no flying because of rain and strong winds. Trucks	50X1-HUN
aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Document No. 12 Parchiment Parchiment No. 12 Parchiment		2.	A radio installation was located in the extension of the runway about 600 meters beyond the Parchim-Damm road. ****
aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment, equipped with Mig-15s, is believed to be stationed there. Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Document 10 Declaration 12 States.			Comment. The report does not indicate whether the number of	50X1-HUM
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Document No. No. Change In Class. Declaration of Contral Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.			aircraft at the Parchim airfield has changed. One fighter regiment.
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Document No. No. Change In Class. Declaration of Change In Class. Auth.: HR To.			Comment. The radio installation is probably a landing beacon.
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. No Change In Class.			- Augustus and Aug
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. No Change In Wass. Declaration of In October 1978 from the Archivist of the United States.			·
This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. No Change In Wass. Declaration of In October 1978 from the Archivist of the United States.			Down of A
Next Review Date: 2008 Date: VI/07/78 By:	•		This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
50X1-HUM			Next Review Date: 2008 Date: _V/o 7 / 7 8 By:

CONFIDENTIAL

LO Bern H

CLASSIFICATION SECRET CONTROL/US DEFICIALS DAILY